Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF) On May 26, 2006 Roland McFoy, a documented member of the Crips street gang, was arrested in Bridgeport, CT by deputy US marshals (DUSMs) from the District of Connecticut (D/CT) acting on information provided by members of PSWRFTF. The Ontario, CA PD wanted McFoy for Murder. McFoy and five other individuals allegedly became involved in an altercation with a truck driver outside of an Ontario restaurant. The altercation escalated and ended with McFoy shooting and killing the truck driver. Before fleeing, the suspects robbed the victim's body. PSWRFTF investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information on McFoy's probable location in Bridgeport and forwarded a collateral lead to D/CT. DUSMs from D/CT located and safely arrested McFoy. Over the last two and one half months, PSWRFTF investigators have located and arrested Alphonso Fuller, Christopher Lewis, and Robert Phipps for their roles in this alleged shooting.	Crips Gang Member  Roland McFoy Wanted for: Murder
Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force (GLRFTF) On May 24, 2006 Ronald A. Schaefer was arrested in Chicago, IL by members of GLRFTF. Authorities in Wisconsin wanted Schaefer for two counts of second degree Sexual Assault of a Child. From March 1990 through August 1990, Schaefer, while employed as a school teacher and girl's basketball coach, allegedly had several sexual encounters with a fourteen year old female student and basketball player. During these encounters, Schaefer allegedly engaged in both oral sex and intercourse with the victim. GLRFTF investigators developed information indicating Schaefer obtained employment as a teacher, girl's basketball coach, and as the Director of Admissions at a Chicago-area school. GLRFTF investigators responded to the school and safely took Schaefer into custody.	 Ronald A. Schaefer Wanted for: Sexual Assault of a Child
Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF) On May 26, 2006 Antoine Richardson was arrested in Oxon Hill, MD by members of CARFTF. Authorities in Washington, DC sought Richardson on charges of first degree Murder while Armed and Assault with Intent to Kill. Richardson, a violent gang member associated with the Marshal Heights Boys Club, allegedly shot one victim to death, and during a separate incident, shot and severely wounded another man. CARFTF investigators developed information on areas Richardson frequented, and with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), narrowed down Richardson's probable location to Oxon Hill. Investigators responded to the area, observed Richardson, and safely took him into custody.	 Antoine Richardson Wanted for: Murder &amp; Assault

On May 18, 2006 Thomas Jermaine Evans was arrested in Morrow, GA by members of SERFTF, investigators from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), and officers from the Morrow PD. The Charleston, SC PD wanted Evans in connection with a series of recent Armed Robberies, as well as several counts of Burglary and Kidnapping. During this series of robberies, Evans and several accomplices allegedly entered several businesses armed with firearms, held employees hostage, and forced managers to open safes. During one such robbery, Evans and his accomplices allegedly forced a manager to strip and dance before opening the safe. Charleston PD ended the robbery spree by capturing Evans' three alleged accomplices, but Evans evaded arrest. D/SC investigators developed information indicating Evans traveled to and from Atlanta, GA frequently, and forwarded a collateral lead to SERFTF. SERFTF investigators, with critical assistance from TOG, developed information that Evans took up residence with a female in Morrow. Investigators established surveillance at the woman's residence, and after several hours, made entry and took Evans safely into custody. Incident to the arrest, investigators seized three firearms and a vehicle from the residence.

On May 25, 2006 David Nathaniel Hall was arrested in Brooklyn, NY by members of the NY/NJ RFTF. Authorities in Montgomery, MD wanted Hall for Rape, Kidnapping, Robbery, Assault, and Possession of a Deadly Weapon. On May 22, 2006 Hall allegedly abducted a female victim at knifepoint in front of a Rockville, MD grocery store. Hall drove the victim to an alley, struck her in the head, and then sodomized and raped her. Hall then drove the victim to an ATM, forced her to withdraw funds, proceeded to a deserted area, and abandoned the victim and vehicle. The victim contacted police, who while processing the crime scene, identified a latent fingerprint belonging to Hall. Authorities learned that Hall recently left prison after serving a fourteen year term for a similar abduction. Authorities in Montgomery interviewed multiple individuals, developed information indicating Hall fled to Brooklyn, and contacted the NY/NJ RFTF. Investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), obtained a specific location for Hall, and responded to that target. Following surveillance, NY/NJ RFTF personnel made entry and located Hall hiding in the residence's basement. Hall currently awaits extradition to Maryland.
